Peter the Cock drew the sun

Four birds

blued the sky

Red ladybugs drew a smithy where Cuckoo could hammer out her song

Two goats painted the birch trees white and then touched up a magpie's sides

Tomcat drew a fish so big a pair of oxen couldn't pull it

Speckled Hen drew a different design on each egg

Two bears drew a barrel of honey and invited some bees over

Wind drew a flock of sheep in the sky

Rain would have given them a drink, but spilled all her water
